

Embracing the Circle of Life

In the circle of life, struggles we face,
We fight and we claw, to find our own space,
But with grit and hard work we learn,
Success comes to those, who are willing to yearn.

From the moment of birth, we enter this world,
With every cry, our destiny unfurled,
Our families around us, to love and to guide,
Through every milestone, they are by our side.

But as life marches on, death comes to call,
The end of a journey, for one and for all,
Memories linger, of those we hold dear,
Their love and their wisdom, we always keep near.

In the midst of it all, there's the power of love,
A force that endures, and rises above,
It gives us the strength, to carry on through,
The struggles and heartache, that we all go through.

As we ponder the past, and look to the future,
We realize that life is a precious treasure,
Each moment a gift, to cherish and hold,
As the circle of life, continues to unfold.
